Free Student Breakfast Thursday morning

All students are invited to a free informal Breakfast with the President Thursday, Dec. 1, from 8-11 a.m. in the Tiered Area between Room 201 and the Learning Commons. Stop by to grab some breakfast and chat with President Ryan Trospen. He'd like to hear about how your classes are going and what you'd like to see happening or offered at your community college—ENMU-Ruidoso—that would make your student learning experience better.

Art Exhibit Reception Friday

The Community Development Department will present a student art exhibition and sale Dec. 2-9. Ceramics and sculptures decorative and functional will be available as well as paintings in oil, acrylic and watercolors of landscapes, portraits and still lifes. A reception will be held on Friday, Dec. 2, from 4-7 p.m. in the Learning Commons.

Join us for the Christmas Parade Saturday

All faculty, staff and students are invited join in walking and handing out candy in the Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce Christmas Parade Saturday evening. If you want to join in the fun email Dorothy.Smith1@enmu.edu. She will be in touch with details about when and where to meet.

The Chamber Festival of Lights Parade brings friends and family together for an evening of twinkling lights and togetherness in the winter wonderland of Ruidoso. Afterparty to follow the parade in Wingfield Park. The theme for this year's Parade of Lights is the Star Wars theme of "Christmas in the Stars."

ENMU Chancellor Presented with Resolution

Pictured to the right is retiring ENMU System Chancellor/President Dr. Patrice Caldwell with ENMU-Ruidoso President Ryan Trospen presenting her with a resolution for her support and service as this was the last Community College Board meeting she will attend.
