

Like vampires? Cowboy westerns??

Wednesday, April 12, 5:30-7 p.m.
 ENMU-Ruidoso will feature Dr. Julia Smith, NMSU's film archivist and professor, who will show the cult classic, "The Devil's Mistress," a vampire "acid western" film shot in southern New Mexico in the 1960s. Thursday, April 13, 12-1 p.m., Dr. Smith will talk about the acid western genre, film in New Mexico, her work preserving "The Devil's Mistress," and producing a documentary on its director, Orville Wanzer. Join us to learn more about one of the weirdest films ever shot in the region!

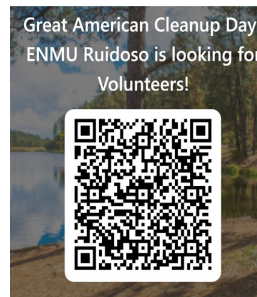

NMSU Film Archivist and Professor Dr. Julia Smith

Volunteers Needed: Great American Clean Up April 16

The Great American Clean Up will be hosted by Keep Ruidoso Beautiful and Ruidoso Parks & Recreation Sunday, April 16, 1-4 p.m. Join Miriam Maske and Dorothy van der Sterre to cleanup our adopt-a-mile. Registration begins at 12 p.m. at Wingfield Park. Food and prize giveaways will be available for volunteers. Gloves, vests, bags and t-shirts will be provided.

Dr. Orozco recognized with NACCS Scholar Award

ENMU-Ruidoso History and Humanities Professor Dr. Cynthia Orozco was recently recognized by the National Association for Chicana and Chicano Studies (NACCS) with the 2023 Scholar Award at their 50th Annual Conference in Denver, Colo. March 29-April 1. "Her commitment to making 'Voces de la Mujer' a permanent stamp in NACCS focused on structural changes in representation, scholarship and leadership," stated the conference presenter.

Dr. Cynthia Orozco was recently recognized by the National Association for Chicana and Chicano Studies (NACCS) with the 2023 Scholar Award at their 50th Annual Conference in Denver, Colo. March 29-April 1. "Her commitment to making 'Voces de la Mujer' a permanent stamp in NACCS focused on structural changes in representation, scholarship and leadership," stated the conference presenter.

Upcoming Events

April

10 Monday

- ◇ Furniture arriving for Rooms 101, 201, 202, 203 & 209
- ◇ Citizens Advisory Committee Meeting, Rm209, 11 a.m.
- ◇ FAFSA Money Mondays, 3-6p, for more info email: Outreach@nmeaf.org

11 Tuesday

- ◇ Furniture arriving for Rooms 101, 201, 202, 203 & 209
- ◇ Community Choir Sing-along, GoodLife Senior Living Center, 108 Vision Dr., 1p
- ◇ Community College Board Meeting, Rm 209, 5p

12 Wednesday

- ◇ Feed Your Brain: Public Historian & NASNTI Grant Project Director Tim Roberts presents "The Jim Crow Era in New Mexico: Institutionalized Segregation Along the Rio Grande"
- ◇ "The Devil's Mistress" film screening, Rm201, 5:30-7p

13 Thursday

- ◇ Dr. Julia Smith will talk about acid western genre, film in NM, the preservation of "The Devil's Mistress," and her documentary, Rm201, 12p

14 Friday

- ◇ Tularosa HS CTE campus tour, 9a-1p
- ◇ Alto Coalition for Environmental Preservation, Rm226, 10a-12p

15 Saturday

- ◇ Campus open, 9a-2p

16 Sunday

- ◇ Great American Clean Up, Wingfield Park, 1-4p, Registration

Mark Your Calendar

It's the best time to begin making graduation memories! View diploma frame options, order personalized announcements, and purchase your cap & gown. ENMU-Ruidoso spirit merch will be available.

SPRING 2023
GRAD FAIR
APRIL 19 | 9a - 2p
 Your one-stop-shop for all your graduation needs!
Graduation Memories Begin Here!