

1st Game Night a Win—Next One, May 8

The newly formed President’s Ambassador Club (PAC) host its first family game night March 27. Club members and Dual Credit Students Ami Bhakta, Dade Girven and Arabella Snead-Schmitz conceived the idea of hosting a game night during their first meeting with President Trooper. Under the guidance of their Club Advisor Dorothy van der Sterre, they arranged to include two video game tournaments, as well as card and board games, and a TV for Minecraft. Over 100 students and community members attended. Don’t miss the next one, Monday, May 8.

Work Study Spotlight

Yamile Horta is a work-study student at ENMU-Ruidoso who started in February in the Student Success Emporium. She is originally from Mexico, but lives in Ruidoso now. She is working on her associate degree in general studies and will graduate in December with plans to transfer to NMSU to pursue a law degree. This work-study position is her first job out of high school. She assists with the front desk, Learning Commons reception desk and assists faculty as needed. Horta stated that she enjoys the opportunity to work at the college as it allows for flexibility and being able to do her homework around work assignments while she works at the College. Horta enjoys watching Netflix in her spare time and has a dog named Reyna.
