

Community Meal Served 235 Meals
 Albertson's Market, Calvary Chapel Church and ENMU-Ruidoso partnered for a second time to serve a free meal to the community Memorial Day, Monday, May 29. Over 235 meals were served. The menu was Dr. Pepper BBQ pulled pork, roasted corn on the cob, cole slaw, and strawberry cake. The crowd was entertained by George's Bindle Bag musicians. Mark your calendars for the next 5th Monday Community Meal will be Monday, July 31.

Community Development Department Receives $25,000 Grant for Kids College
 ENMU-Ruidoso Community Development department received a $25,000 grant from the New Mexico Out-of-School Time (OST) Network for the 2023 Kids College summer enrichment program. The grant provides funds for the projected participation of 50 students for the week-long program, July 24-28. The grant allows students who have completed kindergarten through 8th grades to attend Kids College for free and allows increased pay for instructors. Pre-registration is open now for students. Faculty, staff and members of the community are encouraged to propose hour-long classes for the mornings or afternoons or sports camps. Visit the website for more details or call 575-315-1213 for more information.
