

Juneteenth Discussion Monday 10 a.m. Room 201

ENMU-Ruidoso will host a livestream Juneteenth Panel Discussion from ENMU-Roswell, Monday, June 19 at 10 a.m. in Room 201. The Q & A panel session, "Educate and Celebrate a Leadership Discussion of Juneteenth" will be led by Harun Williams with guest speaker Dr. Rhonda Gilliam-Smith.

Volunteers Needed: AIM High Fundraising Event

Volunteers are still needed for ENMU-Ruidoso Foundation's annual sporting clay fundraiser at Inn of the Mountain Gods June 30-July 1. The main event is a 100-round sporting clay course Friday and Saturday and a banquet Saturday evening. The banquet begins at 5:30 p.m. with a cash bar, dinner, dance and shooting awards will be presented to the top two teams, the youth shooter and the overall high shooter. Live and silent auctions will be held with sporting and non-sporting items. A raffle will be held to win a Beretta 685 Silver Pigeon Over/Under 12ga Shotgun, 32" barrel with floral engraving, and oil finished wood. To sign up to volunteer contact Vice President Coda Omness by email at coda.omness@enmu.edu.

Ecology of Southwest Uplands Biology Course begins June 26

ENMU-Ruidoso is offering a week-long hybrid learning biology course focusing on the local wildlife within the Tularosa Basin, Sacramento and San Andres Mountains. Emphasis is placed on identification and record-keeping in the field. The course runs June 26-July 1, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. The first class will meet Monday, June 26, at 8 a.m. in Room 106. The majority of the course will be spent in the field at the Bosque Del Apache Wildlife Refuge, White Sands National Monument, and within the Sacramento Range. Larry Cordova, Smokey Bear Ranger District staff wildlife biologist, will co-teach the course with Taylor Joray, assistant wildlife biologist. Cordova has a bachelor's degree in Wildlife Management with a minor in Range Management from Colorado State University. Joray has a bachelor's degree in Biology & Ecological Studies from Illinois College and a master's degree in Conservation Biology from Illinois State University.
