Area High School Seniors Presented with $500 Stay Local Scholarship
 ENMU-Ruidoso Community College offers every high school senior in Lincoln County and Mescalero High School a $500 Stay Local Scholarship for students who enroll with in the next 18 months with a minimum of 12 credit hours. College representatives recently attended the senior award ceremonies to present the scholarship certificates. Hondo Valley Students Rachel and Angelina both plan to use their scholarship to enroll in the Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) program.

ENMU-Ruidoso Graduate Hired as Kids College Coordinator
 Caitlin Daugherty, 20, of Capitan is currently an ENMU student studying Communications with a dream to work in marketing. She began at ENMU-Ruidoso in 2021 and graduated in December with an Associate degree in University Studies and an emphasis in English. "I love to help others and I have an eye for organization. I think this is a great opportunity for me," Daugherty stated. Pre-registration for Kids College is open now for kids who have completed kindergarten through eighth grade. Faculty, staff and members of the community are encouraged to propose hour-long classes or sports camps for the mornings or afternoons. Visit the website for more details or call 575-315-1213 for more info.
