

Former Presidents were Honored at the Dedication Celebration July 31

ENMU-Ruidoso honored former presidents at the Grand Opening and Dedication Celebration July 31. Legislators, elected officials, ENMU-Ruidoso Community College Board members, Foundation Board members, ENMU Board of Regents, and ENMU System Chancellor Dr. James Johnston and First Lady Stephanie were on hand to recognize former ENMU-Ruidoso Presidents; Dr. James P. Miller, Jr., Dr. Michael Elrod, Dr. Clayton Alred, and Dr. D. Ryan Carstens. Dr. Elrod was not able to attend. The celebration included a special performance by the ENMU-Ruidoso Community Choir. Faculty, staff and students were on hand to showcase the College's academic and community education programs and services, and student organizations. The event ended with the 5th Monday community meal provided Albertson's Market, Calvary Chapel Church, and the College. Nearly 290 meals were served.

Hall of Champions Exhibit Debut

The Hall of Champions Exhibit Debut was showcased at the Grand Opening. The mobile, living exhibit is designed on old doors from the construction phases to serve as a tribute from the ENMU-Ruidoso Foundation to the community leaders and pioneers who followed ideas to execution and opened "doors" for the future generations of students, staff and community members. The exhibit was developed to as fluid as the growth and expansion of the college students and programs. Contributors include; President Ryan Trospers, Dr. Cynthia Orozco, and Lisa Maue, along with many community members who shared their talents and gifts.

CNA Students Pinned

Six certified nursing assistant certificate (CNA) of occupational training students were pinned at a ceremony Friday, July 28 at the College. The pinning ceremony signifies the completion of the program. The certificate of occupational training in nurse assistant is designed to prepare students to successfully sit for the state certified nursing assistant certification examination. The course instructors are Joann Wolfe and Lindsey Valliant (supervisor).
