

Welcome New Counselor David McVey

As a part of the Native American-Serving Non-Tribal Institution (NASNTI) grant David McVey recently joined the college as the new full-time counselor. He has a bachelor's degree from Dallas Christian College, Texas, and a master's of arts degree in Behavioral Health Counseling from ENMU-Portales. He will be available soon for supportive and solution-focused counseling appointments with students, faculty and staff as all the necessary components of our new ENMU-Ruidoso Counseling Center come together. Information about his schedule will be forthcoming. He will serve the campus through individual counseling and promoting emotional wellness via living into the principles and practices of Positive Psychology. He and his wife, Lola, have lived in Ruidoso since 2017. They have three grown children, lots of grandchildren and a pet chihuahua. He worked the past 13 years at Behavioral Health Counseling.

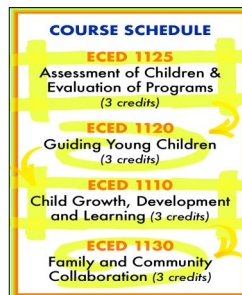

ENMU-Ruidoso will serve as an Early Voting Site
