

Scholarship Recipients Recognized

ENMU-Ruidoso Foundation Scholarship recipients were recognized at the recent Scholarship Reception. Pictured from left to right: Marcy Bailey, Misty Rodriguez, Roman Parra, Erika Jarvis, Christina Ponce, Jaylene Pelkey, Tashmira Treas, Shanay Scott-Arbuckle, and Anthony Mendez.

Adopt-A-Mile Cleanup Nov. 30

Weather permitting, we will have an Adopt-A-Mile Cleanup day on Thursday, Nov. 30, from 1-4 p.m. The ENMU-Ruidoso Adopt-A-Mile is located on Highway 70 at mile marker 261 at the “Y” near K-Bobs. All students, faculty, staff and friends of the College are invited join in helping. Please sign up here. If you have questions see Director of Learning Commons & Distance Education Miriam Maske.

Join the College in the Festival of Lights Parade Dec. 2

The Ruidoso Valley Chamber of Commerce will host the Christmas Parade Saturday, Dec. 2, at 5:30 p.m. Beautifully lit and fantastically festive, the Festival of Lights Parade brings friends and family together for an evening of twinkling lights and togetherness in the winter wonderland of Ruidoso. The theme this year is Songs of Christmas so get your creativity flowing and sign-up by emailing Olivia to walk in the parade with ENMU-Ruidoso!

Foundation Scholarship Applications for Spring Semester Due Jan. 10

Students enrolled in for-credit or community education (non-credit) classes who meet any of the following criteria may be eligible to receive an ENMU-Ruidoso Foundation Scholarship: traditional-aged (recent HS graduate), nontraditional-aged, degree-seeking, single parent, enrolled full-time, Lincoln Co. resident, Mescalero resident, graduate of Hondo or Ruidoso high schools, enrolled in art classes or community choir, low income, parent of dependent children, interested in title insurance industry, or the first in your family to attend college. For more information call 575-315-1216 or email Foundation Director Rochelle Lentschke. Applications are available in the Foundation Office.

New Artwork Recently Installed on Campus

The College used Art in Public Places (AIPP) program funds of the New Mexico Arts Department of Cultural Affairs to purchase two pieces of artwork. Both are displayed near the front desk and are acrylic and oil pastel on canvas by Jerry Brown. One is titled “We are still here” and the other pictured here is “Community.”

Upcoming Events

November

- 22 Wednesday
  - ◇ College Closed
- 23 Thursday
  - ◇ Happy Thanksgiving
  - ◇ College Closed
- 24 Friday
  - ◇ College Closed
- 26 Sunday
  - ◇ Community Choir performing, Inn of the Mountain Gods Christmas Tree Lighting, 6p
- 27 Monday
  - ◇ PTK Meeting, Learning Commons, FREE PIZZA, 5p
- 28 Tuesday
  - ◇ CFLC, Rm226, 1:30-3:30p
- 29 Wednesday
  - ◇ Board of Realtors, Membership Meeting, Rm201, 8a-1p
- 30 Thursday
  - ◇ Adopt-A-Mile Clean-up, Hwy 70 Mile Marker 261, 1-4p

December

- 1 Friday
  - ◇ Student Art Sale & Show Reception, Learning Commons, 4:30p
- 2 Saturday
  - ◇ Christmas Parade, Midtown, 5:30p
- 3 Sunday
  - ◇ Community Choir Performing, Downshift Brewery Christmas Tree Lighting, 4p

