Miss Rodeo New Mexico Pageant to be held at ENMU-Ruidoso

The Miss Rodeo New Mexico Pageant will be held in Ruidoso Oct. 18-19. Horsemanship will be held in an arena on Friday; modeling, speeches, interviews and fashion show will be held at ENMU-Ruidoso on Saturday. The current Miss Rodeo America is Emma Cameron of Santa Fe will be in attendance. She was crowned as Miss Rodeo America 2024 Dec. 10 in Las Vegas, Nev. Prior to being selected, she represented the Land of Enchantment as Miss Rodeo New Mexico 2023.

The historic southwest of Santa Fe helped fuel Emma's passion for rodeo at an early age. Her participation and dedication to high school rodeo culminated with her being crowned the National High School Rodeo Queen in 2018. After graduating with honors from Cornell University, Emma worked as a commodity risk management analyst in Kansas City before moving back to the Southwest where she worked as a diagnostic technical specialist in the animal health industry. In her free time, she enjoys rodeoing, showing ranch riding and reined cow horses, weightlifting, and working with 4-H and youth rodeo organizations. After her reign as Miss Rodeo America, she plans to attend law school and pursue a career representing producers to ensure sustainability of the agriculture industry.

During her reign as the official representative of the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA), Emma travels approximately 50,000 miles and appears at nearly 150 rodeo performances, as well as making appearances at schools, civic groups, and other special events educating the public and creating awareness about the sport of rodeo, its sponsors, and its opportunities. During her reign she represents and promotes rodeo, agriculture, and the western way of life to more than 2 million people. Emma serves as a spokesperson at a variety of promotional events, and serve as a model in commercial advertisements for western retailers, publications, sponsors, and other service providers to the western industry.
