Are You Wildfire Ready? Join us for a Community Forum Tuesday, Nov. 12, 5 p.m.

Join local wildland fire experts for a FREE informative session regarding Wildland Fire Preparedness Tuesday, Nov. 12, 5-7 p.m. in Room 201. This session is to educate and empower the communities about all aspects of wildland fire. The topic will be Learn the Lingo: basic Wildland Fire Terminology and Wildland Fire Strategies: the decision making process for wildland fire suppression management simplified. For more information or questions, call Bequi Livingston at 505-263-0289. The Wildland Fire Forum Facilitators include Bequi Livingston, Wesley Hall, Rich Dolphin and Robbi Hall. All are Ruidoso area residents who have many years of experience as wildland firefighters.

Teaching & Learning Workshop Saturday, Nov. 16, 9:30 a.m.-3 p.m.

This semester's theme is "Empowering College Instructors: Building Actionable Insight & Student Support." Lunch will be provided, and a stipend will be available to those who attend the entire workshop. Don't miss the prize giveaways! All sessions will take place in the new Computer Lab that is now in Room 203.
