

Dual Credit Family Night Open House Wednesday

Join us for a free family night to learn about the Dual Credit Program at ENMU-Ruidoso Wednesday, Dec. 4, from 4-6 p.m. Advisors will be available to discuss degree pathways. Pizza will be provided. The Dual Credit Program allows high school students to earn both high school and college credit simultaneously by taking college-level courses. It is a great way to get a head start on college, explore areas of interest and save on future tuition. This free event is for high school students in grades 10-12 who meet the academic requirements are eligible to enroll in dual credit courses. For more information call the Dual Credit Coordinator Sydnee Mowery at 575-315-1134 or email her at Sydnee.Mowery@enmu.edu.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 4 · 4 - 6 P.M. at ENMU-RUIDOSO

Welcome New Coaches

Micah Bray of Ruidoso was recently hired as the Head Men's & Women's Cross Country Coach which is a new permanent part-time position. He has a bachelor's degree of Arts in Psychology from Point Loma Nazarene University, in San Diego, Calif. He has worked in counseling, personal training and coaching, sales and retail business. He is a co-owner of No-mad. He and his wife and children moved to Ruidoso from Los Angeles in 2014, looking for a slower pace of life and a place to start a family. He enjoys running, playing guitar and bass guitar, oil painting and jumping on the trampoline with his three kids. "I love helping others tap into their greatest potential," said Micah. He can be reached at ext. 8169 or email at Micah.Bray@enmu.edu.

Chelsea DeMott of Bosque Farms was recently hired as the Head Men's and Women's Rodeo Coach also a permanent part-time position. She received her bachelor's degree of Business Administration in Marketing from New Mexico Highlands University in Las Vegas, N.M. During her time there, she was a member of the rodeo team where she competed in team roping, breakaway roping and goat tying. Chelsea was the NIRA Grand Canyon Regional Student Director and qualified for the College National Finals Rodeo in 2014 and 2015. Chelsea is a sales representative for Wrangler Jeans covering New Mexico and northwest Texas and has been managing the territory for the past nine years. Chelsea is looking forward to moving to Ruidoso and starting the ENMU-Ruidoso Rodeo team!
