Welcome New Employee Sharon Young

Sharon Young of Angus was recently hired as the full-time Career and Transfer Center Coordinator as a part of the Native American Serving Non-Tribal Institution (NASNTI) Grant. She has a bachelor's degree of science in vocational education from NMSU. She has taught agriculture and FFA in Orange, Calif, and Silver City, T or C, Hatch, Alamogordo, and Carrizozo. She has three stepsons she raised in Lincoln County. She and her husband live in a log home built by his grandfather in 1951. They moved to Lincoln County in 2002, after his service in the Air Force. She is the committee chair for Lincoln County Youth Agriculture Supporters fundraising event and has been 4-H leader for 20 years. She is co-chair of Wool Lead competition at NM State Fair. She enjoys helping students succeed – helping 4-H members get their animals and projects ready for livestock shows and fairs. She has never met a stranger. In her spare time she enjoys welding, sewing and quilting. She has two blue heeler dogs, Dazee and Luna.
