

Registration is Open for 2nd 8-week Classes

Registration is currently open for the Spring Semester's second 8-week classes which run March 17-May 9. The classes available include communication, construction trades, criminal justice, early childhood education, hospitality management, human services, nursing assistant, psychology and welding. Current students can register online or in-person during regular business hours Monday through Friday, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. New students should stop by the ENMU-Ruidoso campus at 709 Mechem Drive in Ruidoso or call 575-315-1120 to schedule an appointment with an advisor to register. The class schedule is available on the college website ruidoso.enmu.edu through the Quick Links menu in the upper right corner of the page. Scholarships and financial assistance are available.

P.E.O. Presents External Affairs Officer with Scholarship

ENMU-Ruidoso's Chief External Affairs Officer Robin DeMott was presented with the Mary Reeve Legacy Scholarship Feb.7, from the Philanthropic Education Organization (PEO) Chapter AR. The Mary Reeve Legacy Scholarship was established to honor PEO member Reeve who was a dedicated life-long accomplished scholar and educator. "We believe your academic goals and achievements embody the spirit of the Mary Reeve Legacy Scholarship," said Scholarship Committee Chair Susan B. Jimenez.

The scholarship is to be used toward DeMott's academic goal of pursuing her doctorate degree in educational leadership from Kansas State University. Her dissertation is titled Characteristics of Collaborative Community College and Tribal Partnerships: A multiple-case study.
