Carlsbad Student Signs to Pursue Education Degree at ENMU-Ruidoso

Tuesday, May 6, the first-ever Educators Rising signing ceremony took place at Carlsbad High School. This ceremony honored and celebrated outstanding students from Carlsbad High School who have committed to continue their educational journey in education at the post-secondary level throughout the state of New Mexico. The Educators Rising Advisor Kasey Graziano invited ENMU-Ruidoso Education Department Chair and Faculty Member Cleo Mow to attend the ceremony. Educators Rising students exemplify dedication, leadership and a passion for teaching. The Carlsbad High School Student Ella Hovrud will be pursuing her associate degree in Education at ENMU-Ruidoso this fall and will continue as a collegiate member of the ENMU-Ruidoso Educators Rising student organization.

13 Students Recognized at Nursing Pinning Ceremony

ENMU-Ruidoso Branch Community College recognized 13 Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) students Thursday, May 15. Vice President of Student Learning and Success Coda Omness welcomed the audience and gave opening remarks. CNA Instructor Dorothy Roberts presented the blessing and recognized the students, and the class was presented for pinning. Pinning a graduating CNA student symbolizes their initiation into the nursing profession and marks the completion of their Nursing Assistant Certificate of Occupational Training. The graduates and their hometown include: Darian Milam of Alto; Anita Trujillo and Yara Gwyn of Capitan; Dalaney Reyes, Ashlee Reynolds, Selea Rocha of Mescalero; Nicole Krzeboit, Crimson O'Mera and Dannay Barraza of Roswell; Ingrid Del Muro Herrera, Jatonna Holmes and Harley Widener of Ruidoso; and Christian Kazhe of Tularosa.
