Two Stained Glass Classes Offered this Summer

The Community Development Office is offering a 7-week Basic Stained Glass Class that began June 13 and is offered Wednesdays and Fridays each week from 5-7 p.m. at the N.M. Art Glass Center in Ruidoso. In this Introduction to the Art of Stained Glass students will learn the basics of safety, tools and hardware, designing, cutting, glass selection, foiling, soldering and cleaning techniques. The cost is $325 that includes basic supplies. A Suncatcher Stained Glass Class is being offered for three weeks that started June 16 on Mondays and Tuesdays 5-7 p.m. also at the N.M. Art Glass Center. The cost is $100 and includes basic supplies. Students will learn the introduction to copper foiling. Both classes will be instructed by William Mac. Late registrations are still being accepted.

Golf Coach Darrell Turnipseed Named as ENMU-Ruidoso Athletic Coordinator

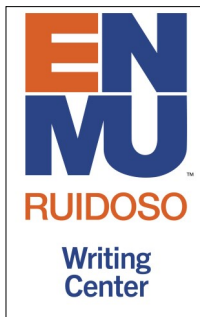

Congratulations to Head Golf Coach Darrell Turnipseed for being selected as the new Athletic Coordinator for ENMU-Ruidoso. The Athletic Coordinator position is a full-time staff position while the coaching position is a permanent part-time position. Darrell is from El Paso, Texas, and was hired April 7 as the head women's and men's golf coach. He has recently relocated to Ruidoso. He has an Associate Degree in University Studies from El Paso Community College and a Bachelor's Degree in Physical Education with a emphasis in Sports and Recreation Management from ENMU in Portales. He is retired from El Paso Independent School District. He has a passion for developing young athletes and over 25 years of coaching experience. He dedicated much of his career to working with youth and professional athletes through the Cedric Benson Sports Academy, where he played a vital role in building athletic talent, character and discipline. Coach Turnipseed can be reached at 575-315-1167 or Darrell.Turnipseed@enmu.edu.
