

NURSING PROGRAMS

PRE-NURSING

Certificate of Completion

34 credit hours

This certificate will provide students with coursework identified by the New Mexico Nursing Education consortium (NMNEC) as the common statewide prerequisites and general education courses for an ADN. Students completing this certificate can apply to ENMU-Roswell or any state founded New Mexico Community College or University and apply for admission into their ADN program. Students must consider that passing mandated background checks and drug screening is a condition of entry into NA/L courses and nursing programs in NM.

Upon completion of the certificate students will be able to:

- Achieve a general education that serves as the solid base for the practice and education of nurses, as defined by NMNEC.
- Assemble entrance packet required to enter a nursing program.
- Sit for entrance exam dictated by nursing program.

Any student who is ineligible for state, national, or industry licensure or certification is ineligible for entry into this program.
