Student Speakers

Edith Morgan Mescalero

Edith Morgan is a current student at ENMU-Ruidoso, majoring in Early Childhood Education and entering her sophomore year in the fall 2026–2027 semester. Born and raised in Mescalero, NM, Edith is a proud member of the Mescalero Apache community, and her culture and faith are central to who she is. She is a member of the President's Ambassadors Club and the National Society of Leadership and Success. After stepping away from school in 2009 due to health challenges, Edith began working as a High School Apache Teacher's Aide at the Mescalero Apache School in 2023, where a deep love for students and the classroom inspired her to pursue her education. She earned her High School Equivalency diploma in May 2025. Currently serving as a Kindergarten Teacher's Aide, Edith aspires to one day lead her own classroom as an Apache Language Teacher.

Kaylyn Chino Mescalero

Kaylyn Chino is a senior at Mescalero Apache High School and an enrolled member of the Mescalero Apache Tribe with Laguna Pueblo heritage. Ranked first in her graduating class of 43, she carries a 4.4 GPA while competing as a student athlete in cross country, basketball, track, and golf, and completing dual credit coursework. At just 16 years old, Kaylyn earned two professional certifications, as a welder and as a phlebotomist, a remarkable achievement that speaks to both her drive and her range. She is on track to graduate as class valedictorian.

Jessi Dentler Ruidoso

Jessi Dentler is graduating with an Associate of Arts degree in Early Childhood Education from Eastern New Mexico University-Ruidoso with a 4.0 GPA. After earning her High School Equivalency diploma two years ago, she returned to school with a clear purpose and dedication, earning a place on the President's List and induction into the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society. While balancing full-time work and full-time coursework, Jessi also completed her Montessori certification through the North American Montessori Center and currently serves as a Montessori teacher. A devoted mother of two, she plans to continue her education at ENMU Portales, where she will pursue a bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education. Jessi is passionate about making a meaningful and lasting impact in the lives of young children and their families.

Robert Ruiz Jr. Ruidoso

Robert Ruiz Jr. is graduating from ENMU-Ruidoso after two years of study, fulfilling a lifelong dream of completing his college education. A 46-year-old non-traditional student, Robert brings a wealth of life experience to the classroom, including six years of service in the United States Marines and 25 years in the workforce. Originally from East Texas, he made the move to Ruidoso to pursue his degree and discovered a renewed passion for learning along the way. His academic journey has motivated him to continue his education at ENMU Portales, where he plans to work toward broader personal and professional goals. Robert is also set to enter the education workforce as an assistant teacher's aide in Ruidoso in 2027. He credits his parents as his closest supporters and greatest source of encouragement throughout this journey.

The Mace

Academic maces – staffs of wood, metal or gems – descended from war clubs carried in medieval times by the bodyguards of civil officers. Maces have their roots even earlier than the Roman Empire. Carried before a consul, maces were used to restore order and implement court-ordered rulings. An academic mace symbolizes the authority invested in the president by a university's governing body. When the authority is present, the mace is present. That is why the mace is an integral part of commencement exercises, where students are invested with degrees by the lawful authority of the university. Eastern New Mexico University's mace was designed and crafted by Mr. Greg Senn, art professor, in spring 2007. It is an honor for the mace to be loaned to ENMU-Ruidoso for this occasion.

Academic Regalia

Academic costumes worn during commencement trace their origin to the Middle Ages. Each European college or university had a set of garments that indicated the wearers' status. In the United States, an intercollegiate system of academic costumes has been in use since 1895. The tradition of wearing academic costumes places scholarship above personal preference and current fashion. The academic procession symbolizes the continuity of the tradition of learning and the search for truth throughout the centuries.

High School Equivalency recipients wear a light blue robe or gown. Associate Degree recipients wear a royal blue robe or gown. The tassel on the mortarboards are royal blue and orange. Bachelor's degree recipients wear a black robe or gown. The tassel color on the mortarboard indicates the discipline. Master's Degree recipients wear hoods draped down the back of the robe. The colorful edging identifies the field of study.

Candidates for the undergraduate degree wear the tassel on the right side of the cap at commencement. After degrees are conferred, baccalaureate degree recipients turn the tassel to the left side of the cap indicating that they are now graduates.

Graduation with Honors

ENMU-Ruidoso students may earn the following academic honors, which are noted after recipients' names in the program and indicated by honor cords worn with the graduation robe. With Honors: Honors are awarded to students who complete their program with a cumulative overall grade point average of 3.5 or better are identified by a gold cord. Phi Theta Kappa (PTK) is the largest and most respected honor society serving two-year colleges. PTK regalia is gold with a navy blue cord. Cumulative GPAs are calculated after the last grading period prior to the student's final enrollment.

Philanthropy Cords

ENMU-Ruidoso Foundation offers graduates a special opportunity to wear philanthropy cords during the graduation ceremony. Each cord represents the graduate's classification. A blue cord represents the New Mexico High School Equivalency; an orange cord represents the Associate Degree; and the silver and green cord represents the Bachelor's and Master's Degree. The cords are available to all graduates for a contribution which helps to fund future projects at the College.
